PURPLE AND GOLD

PREFACE

This year it has been the endeavor of the staff to edit a more original, complete, and interesting annual.

We have tried to portray student life from the Seniors' angle, in the art work, in the photographs and snapshots, in the individual paragraphs about the teachers and Seniors, in the write ups, and in the class poem.

We wish to extend our gratitude to the students and the members of the faculty who have cooperated to make this book possible.

We hope this edition proves worthy of the support given it through subscriptions.

CLASS OF 1937

OFFICERS

President	Marshall Bodfish
Vice President	Franklin Ely
Secretary	Helen Kero
Treasurer	Vivian Fowler

ORIGINALITY has been the outstanding trait of the class of 1937 as manifested by the new customs that they have initiated. The pace was set last September by the introduction of a new method of annual staff elections. All seniors were allowed to apply to Mr. Hervey, class advisor, for positions on the staff. After elimination by the general faculty of those thought to be incapable because of lack of time, the class voted for ten. By this method, it was felt by all that a more efficient and interested staff was chosen.

A new system of electing officers was also tried. After nominations from the floor had been made, a primary election was held in which three candidates were selected for each office. In the finals, the rural element swung the election and captured three out of the four offices. The final results were: president, Marshall Bodfish; vice-president, Franklin Ely; secretary, Helen Kero; treasurer, Vivian Fowler.

Spring ushered in the third new idea. Two casts were selected for the senior class play, "New Fires," in order to give a greater number of seniors a chance to take part; one to present the matinee and the other the evening performance. "Johnny" played on the football team, '35, '36; basketball, '35, '36, '37; and on the track team, '35, '36, '37. He keeps in training by delivering meat for Niffenegger Brothers Meat Market in the summer and on Saturdays. He played clarinet in the band, '35, '36. He joined the Vocational Club as a junior and the Auto Club as a senior. Favorite past-time—driving. Would like to travel when he has finished high school.

GAYLE SWEET

A member of the glee club and the mixed chorus, '36, Gayle became a merry chorister in "The Mikado." As a junior she belonged to the Travel Club and as a senior to the Home Economics Club. Her inseparable pal is Helen ("Lu") Kero. Her nickname is "Em." Her hobbies—music and skating. She plans to take a course at Western State Teachers' College next year.

LOUIS WARSKO

As a sophomore Louis was a member of the glee club and mixed chorus and took part in the operetta, "H. M. S. Pinafore." He has also belonged to the Future Farmers of America, '35, '36, '37. His hobbies are swimming, mechanics, and driving a car. Answers to "Shorty," "Louie," "Stub," or "Slim." His best pal is Tony ("Fuzz") Defazio. Next year he plans to take a course in automobile mechanics.

OUR SCARLET PAST

FOOTPRINTS, thousands of them, along the corridors of our Alma Mater relate a tale of student life. To our keen vision are revealed familiar footprints, the trail, the story of the Class of 1937.

Characterized by youthful confidence in our ability and eager anticipation for the gay times before us, the trail begins in Junior High where as "kids with some promise" we feel the glory of limelight when Bud Moran, our extra special athlete, gains a coveted place on the varsity basketball and football squads. Charles Tait and Mary Brady added to our glory as "Freshies," winning the American Legion and Auxiliary awards, respectively.

Entering Senior High the trail exposes a slight faltering—a "scared stiff feeling"—but soon the footprints again show confidence. Not unmindful of our studies we throw ourselves whole-heartedly into the task of pleasing the upper classmen. At Christmas time the "Sophs of '35" playing Santa Claus to the less fortunate families of South Haven. My! we were busy! Dan Szarkowski served as our class president. More honors we flaunt when Bud Moran is selected as an All-Conference tackle by football critics. In the same year five of our members write for "The Critic." Then as spring ushers in the "fever," Mary Brady wins the Sub-District Declamation Contest with her declamation, "Ropes."

Well acquainted with Senior High, we return in the fall of 1935, as busy Juniors with Alexander Shek as our President. Our classmates have places in the Band and Orchestra, on the Student Council, "The Critic" staff, and the athletic teams. This year we make detailed plans to make Junior-Senior Night the best ever. Through our efforts in sponsoring skating benefits, candy sales, and ticket sales we are able to entertain the Seniors at a banquet and a prom. We feel proud in being able to "swing" such a huge success.

As worldly and quite sophisticated seniors, we enrolled at school with our aims high—varsity team, annual staff, and honor role. Our two big projects for the year, the Senior play, "New Fires," and The Purple and Gold keep us working. By this time we see our class athletes firmly established in their berths on the teams. Bob Myers comes forth as an All-Conference guard, and Bud Moran, center par excellence, is high scorer in the Big Five Conference. Marshall Bodfish is our chief executive. Charlotte Clarke edits the Purple and Gold with Otto Groening as Business Manager. Now we are eagerly anticipating the entertainment secretly planned for us with the Juniors as hosts.

This last stretch of our trail finds us looking eagerly and possibly a bit sadly toward June 10, Commencement Day; toward leaving our High School career of work and pleasure to make our footprints beyond S. H. H. S.

OUR ROSY FUTURE

TOWN CRIER

HEAR YE! Hear Ye! Hear Ye! We hereby transfer you to 1950, thirteen years from today and give you tidings of the Class of 1937, South Haven High School.

Edith Foster and Henry Shellenbarger that well known team who replaced Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy are now appearing in "True Blue Harold" series in Casco, Henry's home town. Ronald Wilkinson is working as Henry's understudy and Cleone Fowler is Edith's very able helper.

Harold Behrman having made his first five million, is standing on the corner of Forty Second Street and Broadway passing out dimes to passersby.

"Bunny" Sanford was last heard of when he was making his debut in New York as a tap dancer, Klara Relja is "Bunny's" manager. She has arranged for a challenge to Henry Green, that famous tap dancer who defeated Fred Astaire.

That well known team of Binder and Jerue has gone into the telephone business. When they say "Number Pleeze" your heart just melts.

Arthur Andrews, that master mind, has developed an electric boat that floats above water. He plans to go on an 80-20 basis with his pal Charles Knox.

John Holubar just took the Mammoth Man-Mountain Winterstein in a bout at the Pavilion in South Haven. "I'll be home for supper, Ma," said Johnny as he untangled an arm from Louis' neck.

Veryl Morgan and Jean Muske have at last established their long sought after school for old maids. It didn't turn out so well though as the old girls made the mistake of establishing it next to a home for old men. One night they found Mary McLaughlin getting Alfred Gibson a midnight snack out of the proverbial icebox. Out Mary went with Alfred right after her. "And that is that," said Jean to Veryl.

Elmer Aulie has had five thousand records made of his last Fourth of July speech. "The world is slowly dying. I - - I am the only one to save this desperate world. Elect me President of the World and I will bring you out of this mess."

Loretta Brooks just won a talking contest from Frieda Ely. Loretta kept it up for twenty-one days. When asked if it was hard, she said, as fresh as a daisy, "No competition. It was an easy victory."

Edmund Ksonkewicz is holding contests to see who can spell his name correctly on the first try. So far Dan Szarkowski is the only successful contestant. "With a name like mine you could spell anything," says Dan.

OUR ROSY FUTURE (Cont'd)

The nation is wondering if the rumor is true that Bill Schlaack has at last realized his one ambition—to out play Rubinoff. "Oh, how I love to saw away on that fiddle of mine," says Bill.

Mina Mills is touring the country lecturing on her method of losing unbecoming fat overnight. Mina herself did it but she confesses she doesn't know how.

Henry Williams and Gordon Barnes bought out the Center Theatre. They have enlarged it and have a nightly vaudeville with Kenneth Decker as their headliner. Kenneth pulls hats out of rabbits. Unique! Eh! What?

After his big hit in the senior play Wilbur Offner decided to retire. He is finding it a bit difficult as the installment men have left him nothing but one chair to sit on and he's getting tired of holding his wife, Patricia McVeigh, on his lap.

Police authorities have been investigating the robbery of Roberta Hoag's goldfish. Chief Defazio had about given up when Franklin Ely came to the rescue and said he had taken them. It was discovered that he had taken them to create atmosphere for his new book, "How Many Times a Day Do Goldfish Travel the Globe?"

"Do Chickens Lay Eggs at Night?" Naomi Niffeneger can at last answer this question after sitting up all night every night for a week to observe them.

James Handley is proving that history repeats itself. He has proved that Gerald Symond's cutting down his father's cherry tree on Washington's Birthday is history repeating itself. But Gerald says, "There was a nice cherry up at the top and I just couldn't let it go to waste."

Ted Pahl and James Peck are at last on the radio, on separate programs. They are carrying on a feud, such as Jack Benny's and Fred Allen's years ago. Peck is scheduled to play "The Bee" in his next performance. Don't forget to listen!

Doris Lichtgarn has completed her new system of shorthand which is coming into wide use. Gregg is suing her for $10,000.

Guess who has applied for a license at the Matrimonial Bureau? Anita Calkins and Guy Wenban. Cute couple!

Wendell Ott with his marvelous gift of gab has replaced Boake Carter as an outstanding News Commentator on the radio. Carter says, "He has me beat all hollow."

Junior Gould ate Wheaties; now he is down in the wilds of Africa hunting butterflies.

There's to be a Town Meeting in the Old Town Hall tonight. We'll be seeing more of the Class of '37 there. Will you be there?

CLASS POEM

These are our last days together,
Our last days side by side;
The winds of fortune are waiting
To scatter us far and wide.

As years go by we'll drift along
Farther and farther apart.
Till the only ties that will bind us
Are the memories locked in our hearts.

The housewife, busy with her tasks—
The ace at his air machine—
The farmer, finished with his chores—
All pause at times to dream.

To dream of carefree days gone by
And faces long forgot
And the merry times we once enjoyed,
And the lessons we had—?—not.

The banquet night will linger long
Among these memories clear,
And Commencement week will never fade
From the times we hold most dear.

So let's spend these last days together,
Rejoicing, yet regretful, too.
So we can smile and recall them
As the happiest days we knew.

SHIRLEY RICHARD.

CLASS OF 1938

THE big task of the Juniors every year is the sponsoring of Junior-Senior night. This year's committee has endeavored to do its best to make this event one of the best ever. Class dues, a skating benefit, and candy sales at the tournaments have been some means of raising funds to finance the banquet and dance.

The banquet took place in the girls' gym which was decorated to resemble a colonial mansion. The color scheme for the banquet was worked out in pink and white. Table decorations carried out the theme with silhouettes and miniature spinning wheels for favors. Madelon MacDonald presided as toast-mistress. Josephine Smith, president of the Junior class, welcomed the guests. The response was made by Marshall Bodfish, President of the Senior class. Albert Dick and Wilda Hemenway gave toasts. Also included in the program were a violin solo by Anita Johnson, vocal numbers by the Senior High girls' trio, and a toast by Mr. Listiak.

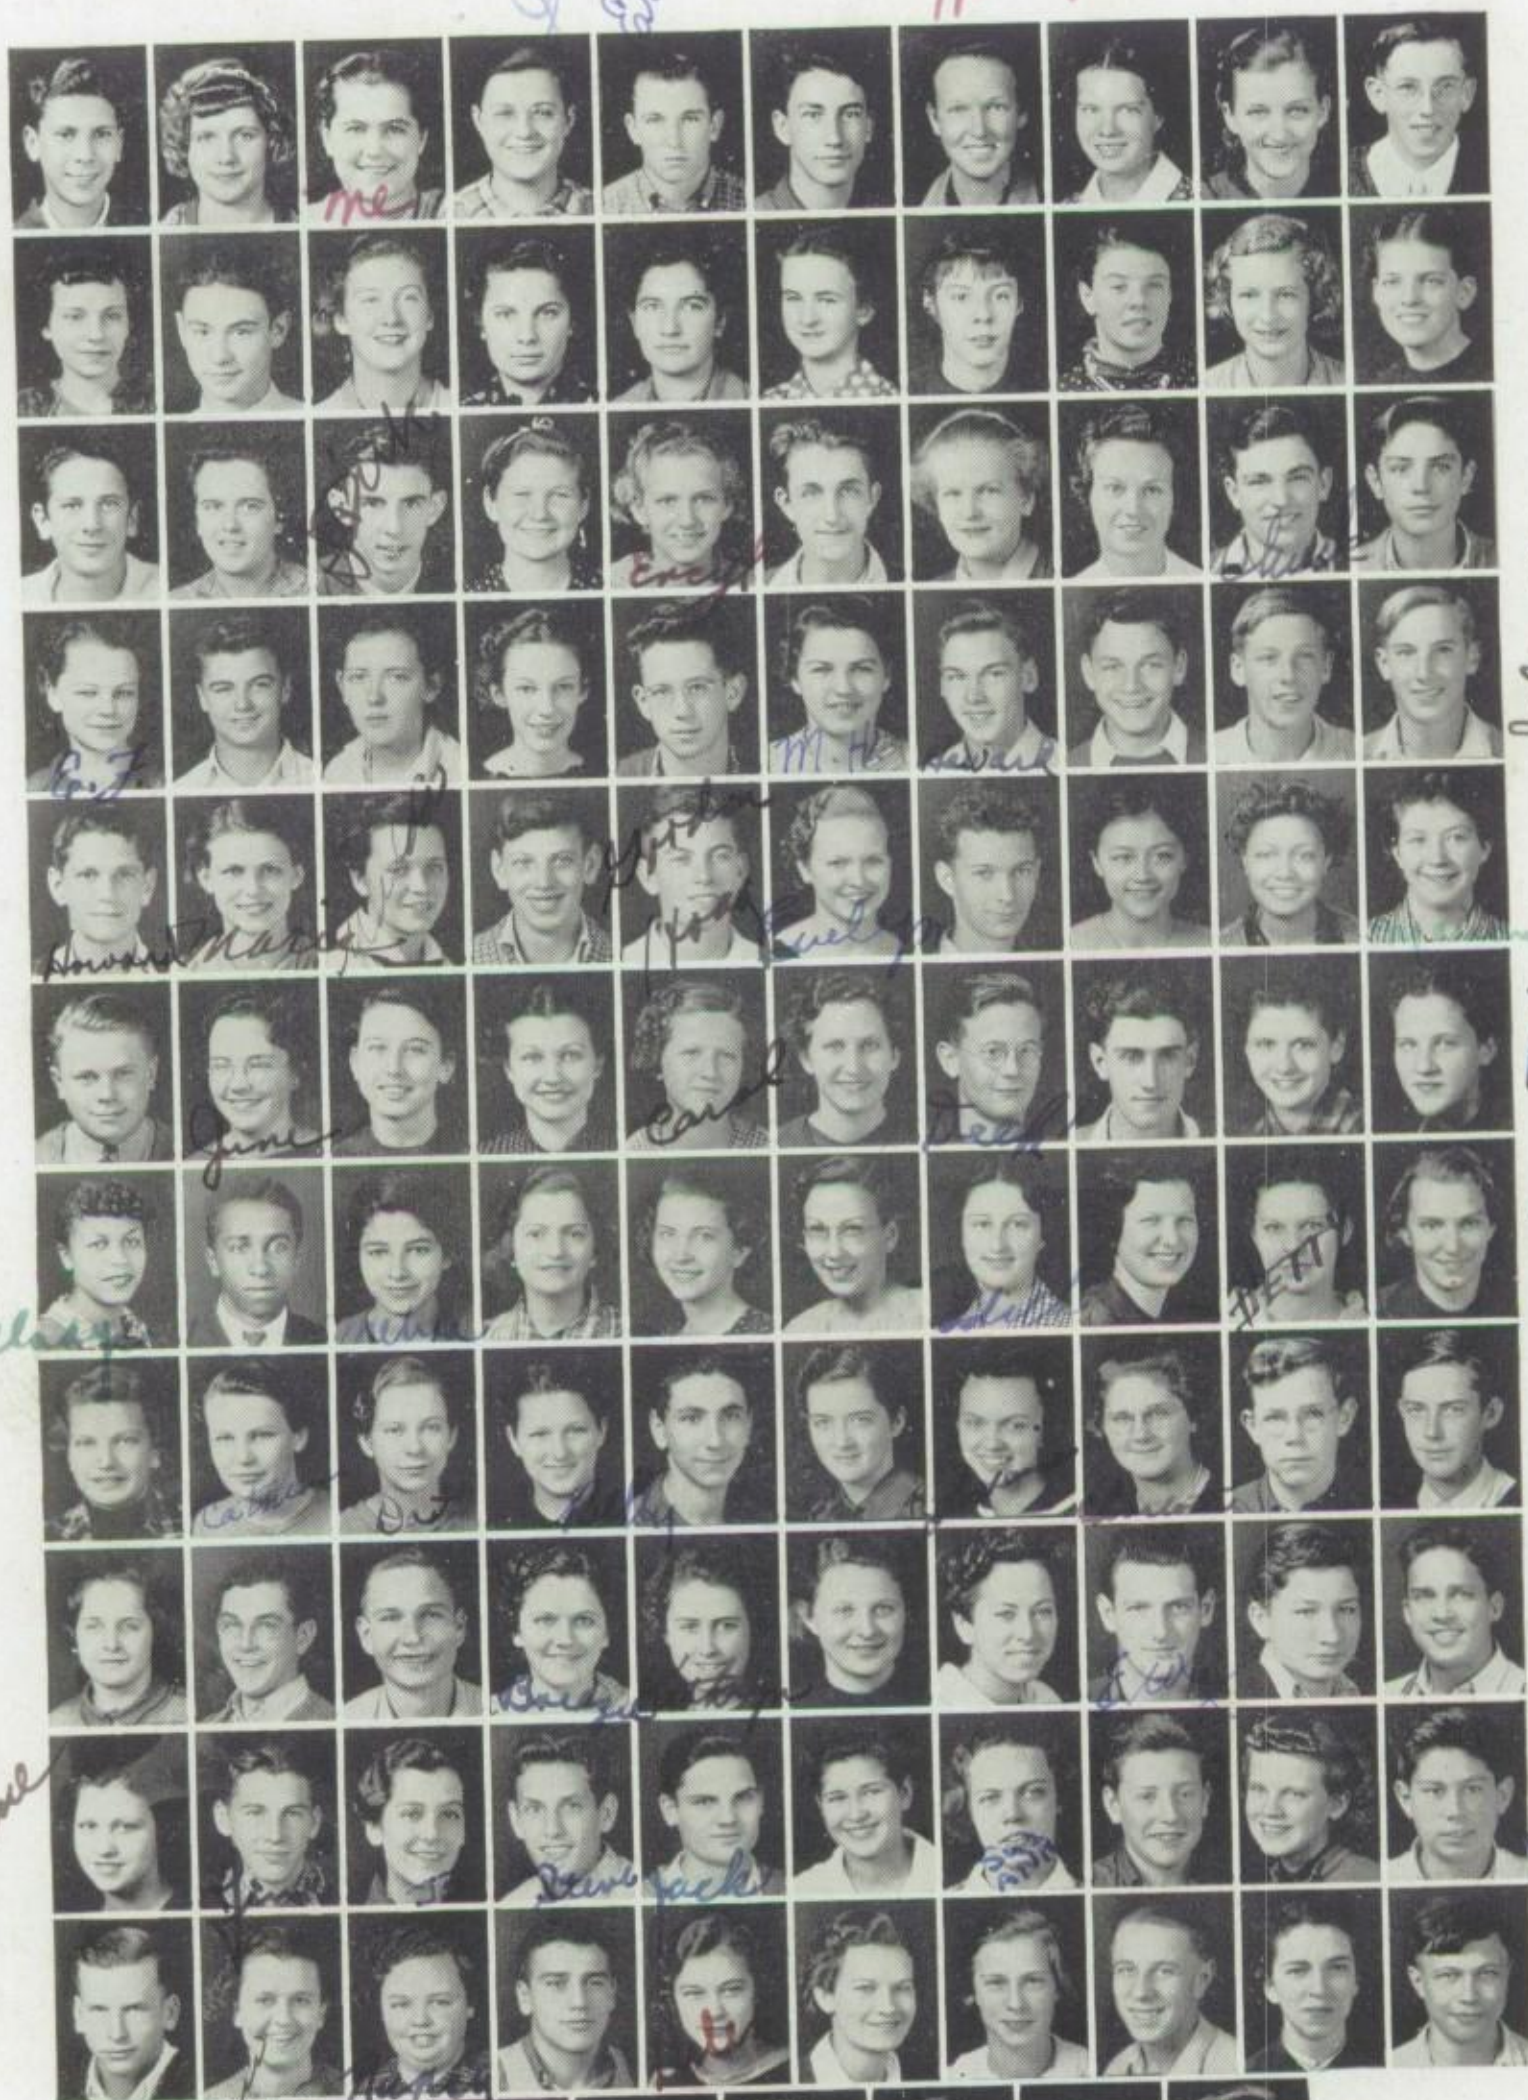

The dance which followed was held in the boys' gym and decorations were blue and silver. The banquet was a great success, and we are sure that the efforts of the committee were well rewarded.

CLASS OF 1939

THE Sophomore class at the first of the year sponsored a contest in which they collected class dues from all but three persons. The winners of this contest were entertained at a party by the losers. At Christmas time food was brought by the members of the class and given to the needy. The class bought Valentines and distributed them among the members of the grades. On Decoration Day the students furnished flowers for both the hospitals. These functions prove that the members of the Sophomore class have been very active this year, and we hope they will continue as well in their Junior and Senior years.

SPORTS

TOP ROW: Overhiser, C. Fowler, Whitlow, Harboldt, Mickey, Gerber, Samson, R. Sherman.
SECOND ROW: Snyder, Siebert, Mielke, Dick, Suhr, Szymczak, M. Schlaack, Coach Baer.
THIRD ROW: Wepfer, Hamlin, Myers, Le Mieux, Symonds, J. Smith.
FOURTH ROW: Ruell, Moran, Tragna, Tait, Winkel, J. Holubar.

FOOTBALL

DUE to the uncertainties of high school athletics and high school athletes, Coach Baer maintains that a high school which wins 50 per cent of its games has had a successful season. Measured by this statement, the 1937 eleven had a successful season with three victories, three losses, and one tie. The squad was a small, light and inexperienced one, which boasted only five veterans: Tait, Moran, Myers, Holubar, and Tragna. Lacking both size and experience they weathered a choppy season, rising to really good ball playing only a few times, then sinking back into their "slough of despair." The St. Joe game proved to be the best of the season, for though South Haven lost 12-7, they played inspired ball against the conference champs. Bob Myers, later named guard on the All-Conference eleven, was instrumental in bottling up the St. Joe running attack and stopping Dumke, the "Bear's" star.

Since the team was so light, Bud Moran was shifted from a line position to the backfield, forming the major threat of the team. South Haven having neither heavy linemen nor blockers in the backfield accounts for the fact that the Purple and Gold attack was held in check most of the season.

SEPTEMBER 24—South Haven-Bangor, 2-0. A blocked punt which rolled out of the end zone, automatically gave South Haven a safety.

OCTOBER 2—South Haven-Niles, 6-24. The game was played at night under the lights and the field was covered by a dense blanket of fog. Tragna scored the six points.

OCTOBER 10—South Haven-Three Rivers, 12-0. Tragna counted the first touchdown on a short line buck, and Moran recovered a blocked punt behind the goal line for the other six points.

OCTOBER 16—Paw Paw, 0-0. With the ball on the one foot line, South Haven failed to push it over.

OCTOBER 31—South Haven-Buchanan, 13-0. Moran scored both touchdowns on plunges and Tragna added the thirteenth point.

NOVEMBER 7—South Haven-St. Joe, 7-12. Holubar ran a short pass 40 yards to score, and St. Joe netted two touchdowns on passes.

NOVEMBER 11—South Haven-Dowagiac, 0-18. In the face of a let-down after the brilliant game against St. Joe, South Haven weakened before the charge of the "Chieftains," on Armistice Day.

A SUMMARY OF THE SEASON SHOWS:

South Haven	2	Bangor	0
South Haven	6	Niles	24
South Haven	12	Three Rivers	0
South Haven	0	Paw Paw	0
South Haven	13	Buchanan	0
South Haven	7	St. Joe	12
South Haven	0	Dowagiac	18

Coach Baer awarded varsity letters to the following:

CAPTAIN CHARLES TAIT—Quarterback, a Senior; though an accident during the summer and a knee injury cut down Chuck's effectiveness, he led the team well.

CAPTAIN-ELECT DOMINICK TRAGNA—Fullback, a Junior; this stocky, hard-hitting plunger will set the pace for the team next season.

ROBERT MYERS—Guard, a Senior; Bob was named on the All-Conference eleven and was voted the most valuable player of the local team.

CLOYD MORAN—Halfback, a Senior; Bud was the best punter in the conference and South Haven's major threat.

JOHN HOLUBAR—End, a Senior; the pass Johnny caught and ran 40 yards to score in the St. Joe game was the best of his career.

PAUL WINKEL—Halfback, a Senior; Winkel was especially effective on defense, coming up fast to stop plays.

GERALD SYMONDS—Guard, a Senior; playing his first season on the varsity, "Simp" played a steady game.

JAMES SMITH—Tackle, a Senior; Jim also was a first year man and played an aggressive game at all times.

ELDON RUELL—Tackle, Junior; "Eldy" played his first season at tackle and returns for another season of competition.

WARD HAMLIN—End, Junior; playing his first year on the varsity, Ward gained considerable experience to help him next fall.

HAROLD LeMIEUX—Center, Sophomore; another first year man, who returns next fall with a year's experience.

DWIGHT SUHR—Guard, a Senior; though it was his first year on the varsity, Dwight was a capable reserve.

BILL SCHLAACK—Halfback, a Senior; being a fast and shifty runner, Bill was used as the under-study for Moran.

DALE WEPFER—Halfback, a Senior; though a small first year man, Dale was a hard runner and an accurate passer.

SYLVESTER SZYMCAK—Tackle, Sophomore; with enough service to win a letter, Szymczak is expected to take over a regular berth next fall.

JAMES STORMES—Tackle, although he received an injury in the Niles game and later left South Haven, Stormes was awarded a letter.

STEVE SNYDER—Any manager deserves all the credit he can get, for his life is not "a bed of roses." The manager really has to work and take a lot of abuse.

The members of the second team who received honorable mention for the varsity because of their work were:

A. Dick, C. Fowler, L. Greenman, C. Hanson, H. Harboldt, Wm. Irey, I. Lundy, S. Mickey, Wm. Mielke, Wm. Myers, R. Overhiser, A. Samson, R. Sherman, J. Siebert, S. Stone, P. Stieve, J. Wheeler, and P. Whitlow.

The right to wear numerals was awarded to the following freshmen: J. Mielke, K. Knapp and R. Ash.

THE SECOND TEAM SEASON:

Oct. 1	South Haven	0	Dowagiac	0
Oct. 9	South Haven	12	St. Joe	0
Oct. 22	South Haven	0	Coloma	0
Oct. 30	South Haven	7	St. Joe	0

BASKETBALL

TOP ROW: R. Smith, D. Szarkowski, Le Mieux, Stieve, Lundy, Mielke, R. Sherman, C. Holubar.
SECOND ROW: Coach Baer, Fritz, La Bar, Samson, Fagerlund, Hamlin, Shields, Coach Grein.
THIRD ROW: J. Holubar, Dick, Winkel, Moran, J. Smith, Tait, Tragna.

WITH prospects of one of the strongest quintets in recent years, South Haven still had only a mediocre season, winning nine out of fifteen games. They placed fourth in the Big Five by winning three of eight conference tilts. Though a couple of its members had the spirit and fight characteristic of a winning team, the squad as a whole lacked the ability to come through in the tight spots.

It is interesting to note that while winning only three of its eight conference games, South Haven ranked second in team scoring with 183 and that three of their men placed among the first six in individual scorers in the conference. Moran led the league in scoring and Tait and Holubar placed fifth and sixth respectively. For the season South Haven outscored its opponents 369 to 310 in winning nine of its fifteen games.

South Haven's progress through the conference games was mystifying and disappointing. Although doped to win, they lost their opening game to St. Joe, 19-11, in a slow contest. In the second tilt the Dowagiac "Chieftains" staged a whirlwind finish and nosed out the Goldens, 30-24, when the local defense collapsed as Tait and Moran left the game because of fouls. Still unable to hit their stride, South Haven lost its third game to Niles, 23-20. Victory, however shortlived, came in a 26-15 win over Three Rivers. But the following week the St. Joe "Bears" outfought the locals 24-21 in a contest which saw the locals defeated, the deciding basket made on an interference ruling. With their spirit at low ebb and Tait out of regular play, South Haven suffered a 31-17 drubbing from Dowagiac. Finally hitting their stride, the Goldens scored two consecutive victories, 37-19 over Niles and 31-18 over Three Rivers.

The non-conference games brightened the season with all five games easily won, resulting in a stiffened morale for the Goldens.

They easily won both games with Paw Paw, 24-16 and 24-18. Decatur fell 36-17, the Alumni, 30-22, and Bangor, 18-16 as Moran dropped in the winning basket.

BASKETBALL (Cont'd)

With high hope of making the season a success by coming through in the tournaments, South Haven achieved only the district trophy, winning 30-11 over a weak Otsego team in the first encounter. But in the regional tilt at Dowagiac they were bested by St. Joe who staged a last-half rally to win 31-24.

SECOND TEAM BASKETBALL

This year's scrappy second team won 5 games and lost 6, being nosed out of three of these games by a margin of one basket. The record might have been more impressive had not the combination been broken up as Lundy and Mielke were promoted to the varsity. Later in the season Hamlin and Le Mieux saw service on the first team, thus gaining experience for next year. Since the starting line-up of the '37 varsity is composed of five seniors, these recruits from the second team will compose next year's varsity.

The members of the second team who received honorable mention to the varsity were: Hamlin, C. Holubar, La Bar, Le Mieux, Lundy, Mielke, Samson, Siebert, Sherman, Shields, Stieve, and Winterstein. Three freshmen, Ash, Fagerlund, and Smith, were given the right to wear numerals.

BASEBALL 1936

SECOND ROW: J. Smith, Rumiez, Swanson, B. Smith, Ruell, Bennett, Tait.

DESPITE a successful record of seven wins and three losses and third place in the county league, the baseball season for 1936 proved a dull one. The squad lacked the leadership and confidence that produce championship teams. Invariably it happened that when one member of the team was hitting, the whole team followed suit and confidence ran high. But if one of the nine failed under pressure in a tight situation the crumbling of the whole squad followed. Though the batting average for the season was .354—which is very high compared with a good average of .300—hits were not consistently good and were definitely lacking at crucial points. For this reason, Purple and Gold lost three games by a margin of one run.

Frank Crnkovitch displayed the needed ability to come through in a pinch. After Dornan's knee injury, occurring near the middle of the season, made way for Crnkovitch at second base, he ably filled the position with practically no previous experience. He proceeded to play flawless ball both in hitting and fielding, leading the team with a batting average of .461.

Probably the best play of the season was that of Tony Rumiez, who in the Bangor game hit a home run with Swanson on base and tied up the score 2 to 2. With the county championship hanging in balance, Bangor later rallied to win the game 3 to 2 and also the county championship.

April 14. South Haven-Mattawan; 17 to 3. "Lefty" Smith held Mattawan veterans to 5 hits and led the locals with a home run.

April 22. South Haven-Covert; 14 to 7. "Jim" Smith pitched his first victory of the season.

April 24. South Haven-Dowagiac; 4 to 5. The "Chieftains" staged a 3 run rally in the final inning and nosed out the home team.

April 29. South Haven-Gobles; 11 to 3. With their batting eye once more in focus, the locals returned to winning form.

May 1. South Haven-Lawrence; 9 to 1. "Lefty" Smith struck out 16 men and allowed 3 hits.

May 5. South Haven-Lawton; 7 to 1. Swanson led the attack with a triple and a single for a perfect day at bat.

BASEBALL (Cont'd)

May 7. South Haven-Bangor; 2 to 3. Tony Rumiez scored both runs in the 6th inning by his home run with Swanson on second base.

May 15. South Haven-Bloomingtondale; 15 to 0. "Lefty" Smith pitched his first shut out of the season and hit safely twice along with Wenban and Rumiez.

May 22. South Haven-Decatur; 3 to 4. The second conference defeat and put them out of the race for the title. Had tying run on third base in last inning but lacked punch to score it.

May 27. South Haven-Hartford; 14 to 4. They ended the season with a blaze of hitting strength with everybody fattening his batting average.

After the season was completed it was decided that no captain would be chosen until the 1937 season had been completed. Then both an honorary captain for "37" and the captain-elect for "38" would be elected.

TRACK

SECOND ROW: Streeter, Holubar, Gumpert, Moran, Stuenkel, Defazio, Sperti.

CONTRASTED with the 1930 and 1931 seasons, when South Haven's track team placed first in the conference, the 1936 season was a dull one. Failing interest on the part of the athletes and fans has caused South Haven to have a slump in track achievements. Fans fail to find the thrill which is so characteristic of football, baseball, and basketball, and athletes have been growing unwilling to make the necessary sacrifice for stringent training and practicing.

Coach Jillson has been attempting to arouse renewed interest in track and to enforce more strict training rules. By this method he secures only those boys who are willing to work and train faithfully. Coach Jillson is looking forward to a turn for the better in track. Competitors will be those who are willing to work the hardest, even though they may lack experience. By competition with the younger athletes, the veterans will have to work harder to maintain their positions.

Though South Haven possessed a fair track team in 1936, the opposition in every case was far superior, resulting in South Haven placing fifth in the conference, for the first time in its track history.

TRACK (Cont'd)

Edward Gumpert, the only member of the squad who made distinctive achievement, placed first in the mile run in the Regional meet and second at the state meet. Though South Haven lost both its dual meets, one to Paw Paw, $58\frac{2}{3}$ - $45\frac{1}{3}$, and the other to St. Joe, $56\frac{5}{16}$ - $69\frac{1}{6}$, Moran, Holubar, P. Smith, Sperti, Siebert, and M. Schlaack showed flashes of good form. Purple and Gold placed third in the triangular meet at Dowagiac.

The following boys were awarded letters:

E. Gumpert, J. Holubar, Maurice Jones, Merton Jones, C. Moran, J. Siebert, M. Schlaack, P. Smith, A. Sperti, H. Streeter, and C. Stuenkel.

Paul Marrs and Nyman Tripp, managers, were awarded letters.

The following boys received honorable mention, as they did not acquire enough points to win a letter: E. Corrie, B. Dailey, A. Dick, H. Harboldt, A. Leins, S. Mickey, R. Myers, H. Sanford, J. Schnake, and D. Tragna.

THE BOYS' GYM EXHIBITION

THE annual boys' gym exhibition was held March 10 under the direction of Davis J. Baer, instructor of physical education. The program presented by boys of Junior and Senior high school included more relays and games, boxing and wrestling as well as work on the parallel bars and mats. The feature of the Night was the intramural championship basketball game between Schlaack's "Casco Flashes" and Wepfer's "Midgets," in which the "Flashes" turned in a 21-16 victory.

GOLF

THOUGH none of the individual members of the 1936 team were exceptional golfers, they all played consistently well and had an enviable record as a team. Had it not been for the poor condition of one or two courses and the difficulty of getting practice, which is the secret of golfing success, their season might have been more impressive. South Haven placed second in the Big Five Tournaments at Dowagiac and fifth at the regional tournament in Battle Creek. The three veterans, M. Wenban, W. Ott and T. Ratcliffe, and the new member, F. French, composed the team which won 3, lost 2, and tied 1 of its six dual meets.

TENNIS TEAM

LED by Clement Schulman, the tennis team enjoyed a successful season. They placed first in the Big Five Tournament at Dowagiac and were nosed out of the first place in the regional at St. Joe, by the Grand Rapids team with a margin of one-half point. Schulman won the singles championship in the regional tournament and placed second in the state tournament at Ann Arbor, being beaten by the person whom he had defeated in the regional tournament.

Outside of the phenomenal success scored by Schulman in the tournaments, the other members of the team, Richard Arkins, Arthur Clarke, Jr., and Henry Williams, had only a fair season, winning four matches and losing three.

CHEERLEADERS

SECOND ROW: Hudson, Wheeler, Scott.

THIS year considerable improvement has been shown in school spirit due to the efforts of a faculty-student pep committee and the development of the cheering section.

For the purpose of arranging a schedule of organized pep-meetings, a committee was appointed, composed of Miss Eleanor Dennert, chairman, Miss Alta Stauffer, and Mr. Davis J. Baer, representing the faculty, and Mary Brady and Irene Benacker, representing the cheerleaders.

Of the thirty people who responded to the call for more cheerleaders, Irene Benacker, Loretta Hudson, Gwendolyn Scott, Joseph Wheeler, and Leslie Wilkinson were chosen on the basis of interest and ability.

Irene was assistant to Mary. Gwendolyn and Loretta were introduced as cheerleaders to the student body during the basketball season. The uniform for the leaders this year consisted of white corduroy culottes, white sweaters, and white ski boots. Since Mary is the only Senior cheerleader, all will undoubtedly be back for more cheerleading next year.

From time to time during the year skits based on athletic events, talks by the coaches, music by the band, and cheers by the students were featured in the pep meetings.

SENIOR GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

TOP ROW: Morey, V. Fowler, Vincent, Damgaard, Austin, A. Calkins, Miss Hamilton.
SECOND ROW: Freeman, Scheidt, McNeal, Brady, Reynolds, Clarke.

THE opening of the basketball season for girls found many enthusiasts donning their gym togs to report for practice. This year instead of the usual three court game, two court basketball was played, much to the satisfaction of the girls. The Seniors found their teammates the same girls as in previous years. The team worked hard to develop new plays with Mary Brady the temporary captain. As practice continued with every girl "showing up" well, the girls chose Opal Austin as team captain. The Seniors chose black with white for numbers as their team colors.

Under the leadership of their capable captain the Seniors had a very successful season, climaxed by the annual "spite" exhibition game with the strong well-organized Junior team, clad in white and captained by Pauline Niffenegger. The Seniors barely ebbed out a victory by a score of 18-17. Anita Calkins was high point Senior and Frances Twitchell high point Junior.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

GIRLS' physical education this year proved exceedingly interesting because of the varied program planned by Miss Hamilton, the girls' physical education instructor. In the fall baseball was played as long as the weather permitted. A program of hobbies or recreational games was introduced to enable each girl to play her favorite game and to develop new interests. These games included ping-pong, bowling, volley ball, dart throwing, stunts and pyramids work. During the winter nine-court basketball, tap dancing, apparatus work, and rhythm marching were predominant. Much needed corrective posture exercises were emphasized. Spring baseball, tennis, and work on the annual physical education exhibition, presented on March 17th and 19th, completed the varied schedule of activities for the girls.

After school activities for those girls especially interested included hockey, basketball, baseball, and tennis. Braving the snappy weather, black eyes, bruised fingers and swollen shins the interclass hockey teams held regular practices after school. Team captains were appointed by Miss Hamilton.

Two scheduled games were played by the team before the weather became too severe for outside games. This year spring baseball instead of track was the major interest for the athletic "femmes."

To reward girls who have put forth more than usual energy, a letter award was presented to each girl who earned 600 points. The letter "S" is awarded on the basis of scholarship, membership on class and after school teams in the various activities, sportsmanship, and team captaincies. The girl earning the highest number of points for the year was given a special award.

TENNIS

1936 ushered in tennis for girls after a lapse of two years. The girls spent long hours of practice with their coach, Miss Hamilton. The 1936 tennis team was composed of Mary Adams, Jean Appleyard, Irene Benacker, Florence Calkins, Wilda Hemenway, Patricia Knapp, Pauline Niffenegger, and Frances Twitchell. Because most of the surrounding schools had just re-established the sport for girls, only two matches for the local squad could be arranged. Both of these matches were with the girls' team of St. Joseph High School. On their visit to that city, the local squad lost their match, but in the return engagement defeated the visiting girls. All the members of the team except Mary Adams, Jean Appleyard, and Patricia Knapp, who were lost through graduation, are available for further competition.

GIRLS' GYM EXHIBITION

THE Past, Present and Future of Physical Education was the theme for the 1937 girls' gym show, staged March 17 and 19 in the Central Gymnasium. The exhibition was under the direction of Miss Marion Hamilton, Girls' Physical Education instructor. In the March 17 performance, the Sophomore Basketball team was pitted against a combined Junior-Senior Reserve team; in the March 19 performance the Juniors and Seniors played their annual "spite" game, an exciting game which the Seniors won by the slim margin of one point. The final score was 18-17.

Representing the "Past" were "Greek Games," a mimetic dance depicting the development of the modern track events, discus throw, javelin throw, and crouch starting for sprints; a "Bloomer Girls' Drill," in which a very sufficiently attired group of maidens performed strenuous exercises to the merriment of the audience; an old-fashioned square dance appropriately "called" in a rustic manner; and "Bicycle Built for Two," an interpretive dance to the tune of the old favorite, "Daisy Belle."

The modern ideas of physical education were depicted by squad activities; a tap dance routine, a short game of nine-court basketball; stunts and pyramid-building; an interpretive rhythm called "The Scarecrows," and corrective activities for weak "pedal extremities."

Representing the future were recreational activities demonstrating the modern trends toward special interests, such as, fencing, tennis, archery, golf, and bowling. Corrective exercises devoted to particular defects were under the direction of a student leader. The future trends concluded with a spot-lighted futuristic rhythm dance to the beat of tom-toms.

BASKETBALL

THE Sophomores had an unusually strong team this year with a great number of candidates reporting. Ruth McCrimmon was chosen captain. The Sophomores defeated a Junior-Senior Reserve team in an exhibition game on March 17 to the tune of 19-10. The Sophomores' colors were purple and gold.

The Junior-Senior Reserve Girls' Basketball team was organized to give all the girls really interested in basketball a chance to play an exhibition game. The Reserves, clad in blue and white suits, played against the Sophomores on the first night of the annual Girls' Physical Education Exhibition.

OPERETTA

UNDER the direction of Miss Katherine Ellis, the mixed chorus presented a comic opera in two acts, "Joan of the Nancy Lee."

The story concerns a pirate leader, formerly Sir Richard Camden of England, who captures a shipload of fair captives, among them his former fiancée, to avenge himself on her. In the course of events Joan assumes the captaincy of the Nancy Lee after the crew mutinies. All comes to a satisfactory conclusion when Dick shows Joan that her photograph and letters are his most valued possessions.

IN addition to Glee Club concerts in November and May, numerous other appearances were made by newly organized groups from the mixed chorus. Some of these were the Girls' Ensemble, composed of girls from the Glee Club; the Boys' Octet, consisting of Arthur Andrews, George Bridges, Jack Capps, Carl Hanson, William Hough, Henry Shellenbarger, Andrew Sperti, and Ronald Wilkinson; and an A Cappella choir, thirty-two members chosen from the mixed chorus. An outstanding event was the Open Air Festival in May. Four hundred outstanding vocalists, trained by six directors, represented six schools of Van Buren county. The Festival was the first of its kind to be conducted in South Haven.

"NEW FIRES" SENIOR CLASS PLAY

STEPHEN Santry (Otto Groening, Ronald Wilkinson), having inherited a farm, hits upon the plan to have his family visit him on the farm. Soon after the family arrives, Stephen says that he who wants food and raiment must work for it. To convince her father that she must return to Chicago at once, Olive (Jean Watson, Mary Celia Myers) feigns illness. When Lynn Gray, a doctor (Alfred Gibson, Wilbur Offner), is called in, he discovers the sham but announces that she really has a heart ailment calling for healthful living and a good mental attitude. When she rebels, fate intervenes when Mary Marshall (Jean Dilley, Patricia McVeigh), visiting Phyllis (Mary Brady, Ruby Chambers) and Billy (Paul Kuebler, Henry Green) comes down with scarlet fever, resulting in a quarantine. The two servants, Lucinda (Marguerite Morey, Nora Welch) and Suzanne (Margaret McCrimmon, Mary Jean Henney), were not in the house at the time of the quarantine. Dick (Andrew Sperti, Harold Behrman), studies fruit farming, aided by wife Eve (Naomi McNeal, Doris Lichtgarn). Olive resents Doctor Gray's counsel but her love for him is exhibited when Sid Sperry (Gerald Symonds, Arthur Andrews), says that Dr. Gray's car has been wrecked. Dr. Gray is nursed back to health by Olive. Anne (Charlotte Clarke, Anita Calkins), Stephen's wife, realizes his need for her sympathy. Mrs. Sperry (Naomi Niffenegger, Vivian Fowler), Jerry, her son (Bill Schlaack, James Peck), and her neighbor, Mrs. Marshall (Roberta Hoag, Norma Cobb) make up the rest of the cast. The play was directed by Miss Alta Stauffer. Two casts were selected, one to give the matinee and the other the evening performance. The business staff included: business manager, Alfred Gibson; publicity, Mary Jean Henney; stage manager, Roderick French; assistant stage manager, Duane Willis; costumes, Virginia Bridges; prompters, Mary McLaughlin and Veryl Morgan.

ALUMNI PROGRAM

UNDER the direction of the Alumni Day Committee and Miss Stauffer a program was presented in honor of the S. H. H. S. Alumni guests on December 23, 1936. Mr. Baer presented gifts to Bob Myers and Bud Moran, considered the most valuable members of the 1936 South Haven football team. Eight electric clocks to be used in the Vocational Building were presented by Jean Appleyard for the Class of '36 and accepted by Mr. Stanley Johnston for the Board of Education. Short skits, music, and dancing were included in the program with a social hour in the boys' gym following.

DECLAMATIONS AND ORATIONS

THE annual Oratorical and Declamatory contest was held March 10 in the Central Auditorium. Gladys Mickey captured first place with her oration, "Upon Being Black." Mary Brady with her oration, "War Lords," was awarded second place. Other contestants were Ruby Chambers with "A Cloud on the Horizon"; Edmund Ksonkewicz with "What's the Matter With Parole?"; and Naomi McNeal with "Caveat Emptor."

Donna Sahlen took first place in the declamation contest, presenting "Ropes"; and Meyer Warshavsky second place with the declamation "Duped." Other contestants were Ralph Hudson with "Ropes"; Elsie Jensen with "The Gilded Curtain"; Phyllis Levitt with "U. S. Convict No. 9653"; and Beverly Sprague with "Ropes."

In judging the contestants in the oratorical contest, Mr. Arthur Secord, debate coach at Western State Teachers College stated he had little difficulty in selecting first choice. His problem came in choosing a second place winner where two contestants were so very evenly matched.

Gladys Mickey and Donna Sahlen represented South Haven High School in the sub-district contest in April.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

THE Future Farmers of America is a nation-wide organization made up of chapters in many schools of the United States. Its purpose is to promote vocational agriculture in rural communities by sponsoring rural agricultural shows and contests. The South Haven Chapter, under the direction of Mr. Kerrey, holds rural agricultural contests, and last year, a rural Agricultural Day, which was attended by members of rural schools in Allegan and Van Buren Counties.

In October, the local chapter sent two representatives to the National Future Farmers of America Convention at Kansas City, Missouri: Bert Dailey, chosen a member of the Michigan F. F. A. Band which furnished the music for the convention, and Rodney Wilkinson, a former officer of the South Haven Future Farmers.

EXCHANGE PROGRAMS

FOR the last four years it has been customary for several schools of the vicinity to exchange programs showing the various activities of the high schools. This year the schools at Bangor, Covert, Decatur, Lawton, and South Haven exchanged programs during the year. The material for South Haven's programs was planned by the speech classes under the direction of Miss Stauffer.

The programs were usually composed of a one act play plus variety numbers—dances, clarinet quartet, boys' octet, girls' sextet, flute trio, and instrumental solos.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL CLUBS

ACTIVITY CLUB

THE purpose of the Activity Club was to give students a better idea of the location and the functions of the more important industries and places in the city.

Trips were taken to the Indiana and Hartman schools. At the Telephone Company the club was shown how a telephone call is made. They also visited the Fire Department where the members were shown the different methods of fighting fires.

The club was composed of members from the seventh and eighth grades, under the direction of Miss Louise Porter.

SEVENTH GRADE DRAMATIC CLUB

THE Seventh Grade Dramatic Club, under the supervision of Miss Catherine Hawley, spent the first part of the year dramatizing ballads and poems. The latter part of the year was spent on pantomimes and plays, a play being presented before the Junior High School the last quarter.

PUZZLE CLUB

THE members of the Puzzle Club, sponsored by Miss Evelyn Johnson, spent their time this year learning to play checkers and chess. A tournament was held in each of these games, Conrad Ratcliffe winning the checker tournament. Members who did not wish to play checkers or chess brought in puzzles to work during club hours.

STORY CLUB

THE meetings of the Story Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Elaine Eppler, were devoted to the reading and discussion of short stories from books and magazines. The purpose of the club was to broaden the knowledge of good stories that appear in current books and magazines.

CHARM CLUB

THE Charm Club was organized by Miss Murphy for girls who wanted to improve their appearance. After a talk given by one of the beauticians of the city on hair-styles, many of the girls did some experimenting along that line. Fingernails were the focus of attention for a while. Different styles of dress in various color combinations occupied most of the club's time.

HANDICRAFT CLUB

THE Handicraft Club, under the direction of Miss Melinda Crosby, was organized for girls interested in work with brass, wood, cloth, and so on. There were thirty-four girls in the club. Each girl made several pieces of hand work either for herself or her room. The girls made such things as: book ends, desk sets, purses, sweaters, Christmas cards, pillow tops, pictures, and decorative brass pieces.

EIGHTH AND NINTH GRADE DRAMATIC CLUB

THE Eighth and Ninth Grade Dramatic Club, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Hathaway, was formed to give all of its members some acting experience. The time was spent in the production of three plays. "Buried Treasure," a play for girls, and "Have You Seen Red?" were presented in the Central Auditorium. Several other clubs were invited to see the third play, "What An Act!"

BACHELOR'S CLUB

THE Bachelors' Club was composed of 25 boys, under the direction of Miss Virginia Grant. They spent their club periods learning how to press and mend their clothes and to sew on buttons. They also spent much time learning how to cook their favorite dishes. In the spring they took hikes and tried their cooking in the open, and although their meals were not prize winners in culinary art, a good time was had by all.

BOYS' HOBBY CLUB

THE Boys' Hobby Club had on its roll call 23 members who used their time in the manual training workshop doing the things they liked to do. The members made model airplanes, boats, small pieces of furniture, and leather coin purses.

THOUGHTS WHILE STROLLING — Snoony

Off to press with a sports' "quickie." Bud Moran—high point man in basketball; Bob Myers makes All-Conference team; hats off again to Chuck Tait for his consistent and simply swell basketball technique; nice goin', fellas. Dominick Tragna made football captain for next year. A B.t of Pair-Patter—Leading are Schlaack and McNeal, the inimitable "bickerers." Close seconds are Barnes and MacDonald. Fowler and Ely follow while Symonds and Twitchell conclude the roll-call. Howie Harboldt continues to attract the femmes—couldn't keep up with the lad. B'ggest "Blowers" of the school—Ruell and Schlaack—when them thar' lads start, you can't win!! 'Member when I said Tragna and Siebert were slightly balmy? I think I had something there!!! Let's be like the theatre and have our own Academy award—Best Musical Rendition—Anita Johnson and her violin. Best Story Teller—Jean Jean Muske—about her operation. Best Mannered Session—Sixth hour—M' oh boy! Best Manager—Charlotte Clarke—nice goin' on our Staff. Best Entertainment—The latest school dances—they are constantly improving. Synonym—Morgan sisters and Bangor. We razed Otto Groening a lot about his "Scotchness," but he made a mighty good business manager. Give Duane Willis credit for this passing pun—"If the team doesn't win, they will just have to 'Grein' and 'Baer' it!!" How did you like our Senior play set? The kids put a lot of hard work on it. I thought it a success. Don't look now, but, since we have a salutatorian and the valedictorian, why not have a dumbtorian? Maybe I'm just self-conscious! Maddest Moments—Trying to collect for this volume. "The time has come to lend thine ears to au revoir." So long, dear public.

Margaret McCrimmon: "Sakes alive! I don't believe no woman could ever be'n so fat."

Charlotte Clarke: "What ye readin' now, Maggie?"

Margaret: "Why, this paper tells about an English woman who lost two thousand pounds."

Otto Groening had driven into the county fair with his sweetheart. They passed a booth where fresh popcorn was for sale. "My! Otto, ain't that nice?" exclaimed the girl.

"Ain't what nice?" asked Otto.

"Why, the popcorn; it smells so awfully good," replied the girl.

"It does smell kind o' fine," drawled Otto. "I'll jist drive a little closer so you can get a better smell."

"Talking about long feet, I seen some t'other day that both together made a yard," said one member of the liar's club.

"That's nothing, I saw a man once who had feet so big he had to back up to a door to knock on it."

"Doctor, can you help me? My name is Ksonkewicz—"

"No, I'm sorry; I simply can't do anything about that."

Instructors—"And on this paper I want your names—not your signatures."

One Latin student to another—"Did you knock them cold in the Latin quiz?"

"Yes, zero."

The judge pointed with his cane at the prisoner before him. "There's a great rogue at the end of this stick."

Duane Willis—"At which end, your honor?"

The stingy farmer was scoring his hired man for carrying a lighted lantern to call on his best girl. "The idea!" he exclaimed, "When I was courtin', I never carried no lantern; I went in the dark." "Yes, and look what you got," sadly said the man.

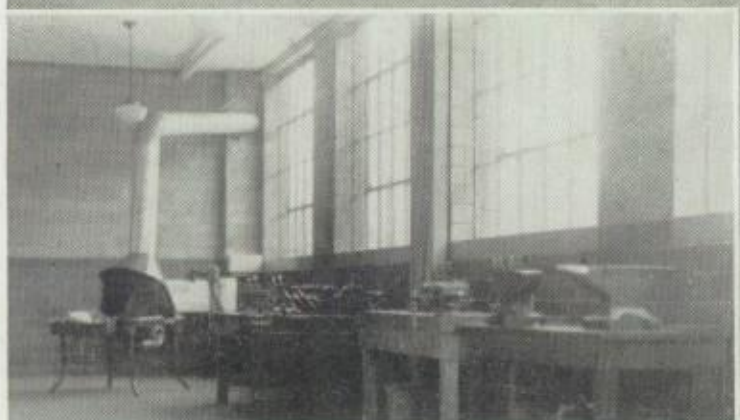

VOCATIONAL BUILDING

THIS year our dream for a Vocational Building was realized; a beautiful new addition to our school was completed in December, 1936.

The Music Department is in greatly enlarged quarters with several spacious music rooms, large rooms for band, orchestra, and the glee clubs, and several smaller rooms for practice work.

Mr. Freeman also has more space at his disposal since the erection of a large manual training room, a painting room, drying room, a tool room, and a private office.

The boys in the Agricultural Department have added facilities in their new rooms.

Boy Scouts also benefited by the construction of this Vocational Building. Almost the entire ground floor was made into rooms for the Boy Scouts.

The facilities of this new building offer added advantages to practically every South Haven High School pupil.
